...determined to save
...the scourge of war, which
...brought untold sorrow to mankind,
...in fundamental human rights, in the
...worth of the human person, in the equal rights
...and women and of nations large and small, and to
...establish conditions under which justice and respect for the
...obligations arising from treaties and other sources of inter-
...national law can be maintained, and...to promote social
...progress and better standards of life in larger freedom and
...for these ends to practice tolerance and live together in
...peace...and...that armed force shall not be used, save in the
...common interest....
